

Obeying Jesus' Command to Love!

Luke 10:25-37

A basic premise for us to begin with:

If you don't have compassion for your _____ then you'll never have compassion for the _____!

In Jesus' day, there was no such thing
as a _____!

*It's about more than getting across the ocean!
We have to go across the street or across the room. We must go to our neighbors!*

Ahavat Yisrael (אהבת ישראל)

~ Love for fellow Jew.

1) The CONTEXT of this parable is the question:

HOW DO I GET ETERNAL LIFE?

2) The APPLICATION of this parable:

- You'll never love God or your neighbor _____ to be saved.

Keeping the law in its entirety with the intent to save ourselves is an impossible task; we need a Savior, and this is Jesus.

- This is the ultimate _____ of how to love our neighbors ... but we need the _____ of Jesus to do it!

Our neighbor is anyone we encounter; we are all creatures of the creator and we are to set aside our prejudice and show love and compassion for others.

- We are the _____ in this parable.

He not only brings us back to health...He brings us back to life!

Dr. Scott Hanberry