

An Everyday Missionary in Babylon- Jeremiah 29

I. The _____ of the Letter. (1-3)

II. The _____ of the Letter. (4-7)

God's 11 Imperatives For Gospel-Impact Where I Have Place You:

1. _____ houses.
2. _____ in them.
3. _____ gardens.
4. _____ the fruit.
5. _____ wives.
6. _____ kids.
7. _____ wives for your sons to marry.
8. _____ your daughters away in marriage.
9. _____, have a bunch of kids and a big family.
10. _____ the welfare of the city.
11. _____ for the city.

III. The _____ of the Letter. (8-9)

IV. The _____ of the Letter. (10-14)

5 Imperatives For Embracing Your Purpose As An Everyday Missionary:

Everyday missionaries are those who practice life on mission where God has placed them. – Life On Mission

1. Repent From _____ Against God's Sovereignty.

It is impossible to be on mission with God if you are _____ and discontent with your life, location, and purpose.

"We spend much of our lives wishing we were someone else, living somewhere else, doing something else. God sovereignly knows who you are, where you are, and has given you a purpose for His glory."

2. Resist The American Dream: It is impossible to be on mission with God if the most important thing in your life is the _____ dream.

"Don't live for your kingdom, live for His kingdom."

3. Reject the outrage culture and cultivate an on-mission _____.

"Outrage doesn't manifest Christ-likeness and rarely produces converts."

4. Renounce _____. Quit being paralyzed by your past and afraid of the present.

"God's grace gives us freedom from our past and courage for the present"

5. Respond To Your Commission: You have been _____ to be an everyday missionary.

"Every Christian is either a missionary or an imposter." –C.H. Spurgeon

An Everyday Missionary in Babylon- Jeremiah 29

I. The _____ of the Letter. (1-3)

II. The _____ of the Letter. (4-7)

God's 11 Imperatives For Gospel-Impact Where I Have Place You:

1. _____ houses.
2. _____ in them.
3. _____ gardens.
4. _____ the fruit.
5. _____ wives.
6. _____ kids.
7. _____ wives for your sons to marry.
8. _____ your daughters away in marriage.
9. _____, have a bunch of kids and a big family.
10. _____ the welfare of the city.
11. _____ for the city.

III. The _____ of the Letter. (8-9)

IV. The _____ of the Letter. (10-14)

5 Imperatives For Embracing Your Purpose As An Everyday Missionary:

Everyday missionaries are those who practice life on mission where God has placed them. – Life On Mission

1. Repent From _____ Against God's Sovereignty.

It is impossible to be on mission with God if you are _____ and discontent with your life, location, and purpose.

"We spend much of our lives wishing we were someone else, living somewhere else, doing something else. God sovereignly knows who you are, where you are, and has given you a purpose for His glory."

2. Resist The American Dream: It is impossible to be on mission with God if the most important thing in your life is the _____ dream.

"Don't live for your kingdom, live for His kingdom."

3. Reject the outrage culture and cultivate an on-mission _____.

"Outrage doesn't manifest Christ-likeness and rarely produces converts."

4. Renounce _____. Quit being paralyzed by your past and afraid of the present.

"God's grace gives us freedom from our past and courage for the present"

5. Respond To Your Commission: You have been _____ to be an everyday missionary.

"Every Christian is either a missionary or an imposter." –C.H. Spurgeon